

Rea Nagel

Natural beauty inspires me to create vibrant impressionist-style paintings. Color and texture are the effect that I strive for when using watercolors and mixed media. Emotions are the element that guides me. When I see something that excites me, I start to plan a painting. I like to let the paint run and form the picture in my mind, combining the paint with the forms and shapes on the paper.

—Rea Nagel

improviZations 2

As it Flows	Acrylic inks, copper wire, gloss medium	$200
China	Acrylic inks and watercolor inks	$300
Gold Mountain	Acrylic paint and inks, collage, gold leaf	$400
Somewhere in the Universe	Acrylic and watercolor inks, sand	$250
When the Sun Comes Up	Watercolor, acrylic paint, collage	$600